On Sunday, November 5th during the 10:30 worship service, Trinity UMC will have our yearly All Saint’s Sunday worship service. During this service, we will take time to remember our members, friends, and family members who have died in the last twelve months. The church office has a list of church members who have died since November 1st, 2016 and we also have some of the family members listed as well. However, if you have a family member you would like to remember at this service, please call the church office by Wednesday, November 1st.
Trinity Library Additions for October

Two new books have been added to the Trinity library. The Only Land I Know: A History of the Lumbee Indians by Adolph L. Dial and David K. Eliades has been given by Pat Wood in memory of Rosa Winfree. To Be Where You Are: A Mitford Novel by Jan Karon has been given by Janice Hooks in memory of Kyle Hooks. It is the newest book in the Mitford series, a favorite author of Trinity readers, and just published in September. Both books are good reads and we hope you will come and take advantage of one of these books or another one. There are books for all ages in our Trinity Library.

Dream Big Read!

Thanks to the membership and the following walkers for their support during our annual CROPWALK: Margie and Don Shuman, Chris, Jenny, and Ainsley Hudson, Bill & Andrea Buchanan, Rev. Kirk Tutterow, and Terry & Susan Bradley.

The total is $1,685.00 raised from Trinity and other supporters for our walkers. Amazing support and results!!! Also thanks to Rev. Nathan Finsel and his walkers for all their support and participation.

God Bless,
Terry Bradley

The Pre-K will celebrate Halloween by Trick-or-Treating through the Church. Due to the number of children in attendance this year, we will trick-or-treat two separate days: Monday, October 30th & Tuesday, October 31st. We are looking for volunteers who would like to sit and hand-out candy to our little “spooks” from 10:00 to 11:15 one or both mornings. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Miss Debbie in the Pre-K office. You do not have to bring your own candy, it will be provided. Thank you!
